What we're learning this half term

English

In reading, we will study Rumaysa: A Fairytale. A book by Radiya Hafiza. It is a twist on the fairy tale Rapunzel.

In writing, we will be using illustrations from the book Arrival to create flashback writing.

Maths

This term, we will build on our place value and fraction learning to develop our understanding of decimals and percentages.

Ancient Greece

What is the legacy of the ancient Greek civilisation? We will describe the features of Ancient Greece and identify the key periods. After, we will learn about the Greek gods, Athens and Sparta. Also, we will understand the different types of democracy.

Science

Properties and changes in materials. We will be exploring hardness, transparency and conductivity of materials. We will also investigate reversible and irreversible changes.

PSHE

We will be looking at families and exploring why people get married.
